NARRATIVE:

Michael Young is a sex offender with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include lewd acts on a child, robbery, domestic violence with injury, burglary, possession of narcotic controlled substances, vandalism, petty theft, under the influence of PCP and multiple cases of failing to register as a sex offender. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being an 8 year term for possession of narcotic controlled substances. Young was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 25, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Young qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for failing to register as a sex offender is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
